RE : ALL LEADERS' COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FORUM 2026

DATE : September 1, 2026

With the First Term of Academic Year 2026–2027 already underway, the University remains committed to providing formation programs that equip Thomasian student leaders to serve as partners in strengthening the Thomasian identity. These initiatives are especially important in advancing meaningful community development and advocacy efforts.

In this regard, we respectfully request your support in ensuring your organization's active participation in the following program:

ALL LEADERS' COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FORUM 2026

Friday, September 18, 2026, 8:30 a.m.- 5:00 p.m., 8/F Central Laboratory Auditorium

All Presidents and Community Development Committee Heads, or Officers-in-Charge of the respective student organizations' or councils' community development/service initiatives, are enjoined to attend as part of their responsibility and commitment to servant leadership (UST Student Handbook, p.11). Participants must complete the pre-registration form on or before September 16, 2026, at 12:00 noon through the following link:

<https://forms.gle/1KFptZw1RCA1ic6H6>

In support of the University's sustainability efforts, all participants are requested to bring their own utensils and tumblers for the lunch distribution. For inquiries or concerns, please contact the OSA Student Formation Team at osastudentformation@ust.edu.ph.

Thank you for your continued support and active participation.
